

Dear FCC:

As a longtime listener to XM Satellite Radio I find the recent NAB lobbying effort to eliminate locally originated content a threat to capitalism at its core. I urge you to ignore the request by the NAB and to continue to let satellite radio compete in a free market.

David Becker